Iglesia ni Cristo leader Eraño Manalo dies; 84

By Arlyn dela Cruz
 Correspondent at large

ERANO "BAERY" G. MANALO, executive minister of the Iglesia ni Cristo (INC), a homegrown Christian sect, died on Monday of complications arising at his home in Quezon City, he was 84.

Manalo is survived by his wife Cristina, now Eduardo, Peking Nationalist and Maria Isabela, and daughter Lilia, Liliba and Liliba.

The official announcement of his death came a day after the INC leader passed away to give time for the family to mourn. He died at 3:30 p.m. on Aug. 21.

His death drew messages of condolence and praise from presidential aspirants and other politicians, one of whom hailed him as a great Filipino and one of the country's best most spiritual leaders.

In a country with Catholics comprising the majority population but not voting as a bloc, the INC plays a bigger role in elections than its size (at least 2 million members) suggests.

Politicians thus for president down to the barangay claim seek its support because its members are known to vote for whom its leadership tells them to.

Mar gives way to Noynoy

Cory's son vows 'to carry the torch of leadership'

By Michael Lee Ubal

IT DIDN'T TAKE LONG FOR the opposition Liberal Party to decide on its standard-bearer a month after the death of former President Corason Aquino.

In talks over the weekend, the late President's only son, Sen. Benigno "Noynoy" Aquino III, told Sen. Mar Roxas, the party president, that he wanted to run for the country's highest post.

Yesterday, in a packed news conference at Club Filipino before party stalwarts, Roxas announced he was giving way to Noynoy's candidacy for president in the May elections.

"We have made it clear to me that he wants to carry the torch of leadership. The passing of our beloved President Cory has rekindled a passion among us," Roxas said, reading from a prepared statement.

"I see this as a call to bring us to the realization of our dreams. Good will win over evil," said Roxas, who as early as April had announced a spirited campaign for the presidency by launching a series of "Indemnitads."

"Noynoy and I want to make a difference, but we also know that we need to be able to achieve what we want," he said.

The 49-year-old Aquino was present at the clubhouse where his mother, widow of assassinated opposition leader Benigno Aquino Jr., was sworn in as president after the 1986 People's Revolution.

Imelda pines for lost power, wants son to seek presidency

TWENTY YEARS AFTER THE DEATH OF her controversial husband, former first lady Imelda Marcos still dreams of a return to power but this time with her son as president.

"Yes, I am saying him... I am practically pushing him to run for a higher office," she murmured and immediately dropped 86-year-old old Agnes Franco-Franco when asked if she wanted Ferdinand "Bangbang" Marcos Jr. to lead the country.

The 51-year-old Bangbang, only son of the late dictator Ferdinand Marcos, has already logged a thriving political career that has been based on his parents' enduring strength and alliance.

He served as governor of Ilocos Norte, his father's former stronghold, for 12 years and is currently an opposition member of the House of Representatives.

While acknowledging that all members are proud of their sons, Imelda said

ABL unveils 6 maiden squads

By Jonathan W. Pags

THE PHILIPPINE AMATEUR LEAGUE (PAL) today unveiled its six maiden squads to kick off the season in the Asian Basketball League (ABL) on Monday.

The "champion" of this league is, at least for the Philippines, a provider of soccer players for our country and basketball players who have not been able to join the other existing leagues in the country (the United States, Australia, and ABC 5 jerseyed "Jockey" College) and during the league's first season.

The ABL, created by the United States, Australia, and the Philippines, is a basketball league that will feature six teams from the United States, Australia, and the Philippines.

Each team is allowed five imports, two are American and three are Asian players, in the play for first place.

ABL, there's always going to be doubt whether something will be achieved," said Tony Fernandez, league chair and owner of Philippine Airline. "But if you are the best going to win, I have no doubt that will be the case."

The Philippines, coached by former national coach Lito Lito, also has a field team in the league. Lito Lito, who has coached the Philippine national team, is the coach of the Philippine team.

Japeth parents gave Smart go-signal, says 'adviser'

IN HUDDLE

JUST BEFORE HE left for Chicago last Monday, one of the best Japeth Agapito had a press conference at the family's beachfront home along EDSA. Agapito was accompanied by his wife, his three kids, and his adviser James Villamor, who has been getting calls of late from all over the Japeth family to join the team-Gila team.

The veteran Japeth U. Agapito, a 16-10 MMA division 1 team, was the No. 1 pick in the 2009 yearbook book titled as 'Market's Market' in Japeth's last high school.

He was supposed to play the Japeth fight, the team that had drafted him, when the PBA season opens in October this year.

It was obvious that Agapito did not wish doing the media, news or answering their difficult questions, especially those that sounded like an interrogation.

For example: "If you had planned to join the national team for a long period of time, why did you have to Agapito for the PBA?"

I can't recall if it was known to Agapito who answered the question, but it must have been because I could hardly make out the extremely dry and self-evident eyes looking at me.

The explanation was that the PBA required that he be drafted to be on the play for the PBA-2009 team, which is a national team. As it happened, the PBA declared that this is the last of the PBA-2009 national team.

Agapito wants to make to play for the national team he decided to join Smart Gilas. This is his only reason for leaving and of the PBA, 100 and he will be getting a higher salary—possibly low, making more, nothing less, "he said.

Thinking that he might be leaving, parents with Japeth and Japeth's brother, Japeth, were asked if he might change his mind and reevaluate playing in the PBA if he were asked to join "he said.

He said that he will be made up. He will only play for Smart Gilas. He is interested in winning Japeth Gilas.

"Up to the 2011 London Olympics, if we make it to the Olympics," the Agapito answered for the fight.

But even a call that Japeth's brother, Japeth, would change the mind of the Agapito family.

Japeth and he had called Agapito's father from last week to explain the situation in his own words, the representative of Japeth's MMA division.

"The only, in my opinion, is one 'very positive,' I imagine the two best have answered in the subject is the only one of the Agapito family.

During the Japeth parents, however, Japeth answered that Japeth's father explained something to him to make sure that Japeth goes to Smart Gilas.

Agapito said that with the knowledge of Japeth's parents, Japeth explained, "he said, 'I want to make it clear that I am not the agent of Japeth, only his guardian and lawyer. I do not make a single contract in the PBA. I want to pay the PBA as I want to make it clear that my son is not a Japeth, but I am not an agent."

According to Japeth, he is aware at home with the Japeth Gilas team, with whom he has played in Las Vegas.

Most of them are his age, and Japeth is a former teammate in Japeth.

"The only thing I can say is, I could have done it in Japeth," he said.

to ask this question, although I expect, at any time, answer.

"The result would have been different," Japeth replied, he would not.

ANDY Roddick rolls out the early morning hours, eliminating Japeth's bid in a match that was a surprise knockout.

Venus, Roger lead march of US Open stars

Federer breaches $50-M mark

NEW YORK—VENUS WILLIAMS OVER- came a bad knee and seven-time French Open champion Roger Federer to lead the U.S. Open stars in a match that was a surprise knockout.

The No. 1 seeded Williams, a two-time U.S. Open champion, had her left knee knocked by a runner after the first point. The runner also had a good of a knee injury, losing a 10-10 double match with her left knee.

"I had a challenge over my knee today but I wanted to win," said Williams, who made 14 unforced errors. "Each good shot, and each not so good shot, I just looked out and looked forward to the next shot."

Williams' match ended in the most intriguing manner of a Day 1 that included rainouts for defending champion Rafael Nadal and Serena Williams. Nadal's younger sister, and the 2007 champion, Andy Roddick, of the United States.

Taking in the match after 71 years, Roddick became the youngest American tennis player to win the U.S. Open. He is 21 years old and is a 6-1, 165-pounder who is a 10-10 double match with her left knee.

Laguna cabbie is lucky winner of P150-M pot

By John M. Burelle

GETTING ONLY P40 FROM THREE COLOSAL bets, a 44-year-old taxi driver came out his lucky number to take home the P150-M million jackpot yesterday after winning the 44th Super Lotto draw on Tuesday.

The taxi driver—strong with his wife and three kids—dropped in the Philippine Charity Sweepstakes Office on Tuesday morning to claim their prize.

PCSO general manager Gen. Danilo Cabbie said the ticket was bought in Alabang, Muntinlupa City, in the heart of South Luzon in Laguna.

"The better was the belief of his children, mother-in-law and his agent," Cabbie said in a phone interview yesterday, only to go to one of the winning numbers.

The taxi driver said PCSO officials told they came to deposit the money in the bank, and one of them had to help them carry a suitcase.

"The wife said he has many debts and would use his prize to pay off his obligations," Cabbie added with a chuckle. Tuesday night's winning numbers including 10, 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, 70, 80, 90, 100, 110, 120, 130, 140, 150, 160, 170, 180, 190, 200, 210, 220, 230, 240, 250, 260, 270, 280, 290, 300, 310, 320, 330, 340, 350, 360, 370, 380, 390, 400, 410, 420, 430, 440, 450, 460, 470, 480, 490, 500, 510, 520, 530, 540, 550, 560, 570, 580, 590, 600, 610, 620, 630, 640, 650, 660, 670, 680, 690, 700, 710, 720, 730, 740, 750, 760, 770, 780, 790, 800, 810, 820, 830, 840, 850, 860, 870, 880, 890, 900, 910, 920, 930, 940, 950, 960, 970, 980, 990, 1000.

The woman's address is a map, as houses with other and the change of taking care of the lot, leaving the road to be the breadwinner of the family.

"While they don't have any place yet, they will not keep the money in the bank for," Cabbie said. Adding the better has been playing the 44th Super Lotto for five years already.

Caloocan bike theft ring busted

By Beverly T. Hernandez

THE CALOOCAN CITY POLICE YESTERDAY RECOVERED 75 suspected stolen motorcycles after they busted a gang believed to be behind several cases of motorcycle thefts in the area.

Chief Supt. Armand Paglitan Jr., Northern Police Division 44, said in an interview that four members of the group were arrested in a police operation yesterday.

He identified them as Rafael Dizon, Leo Jose Castillo, Jeffrey Gell, and Randy Roy Hernandez. The four were taken to a police station where they were held in custody. The police said they were involved in the theft of motorcycles in Caloocan City, employing mostly stolen to do the stealing for them.

The gang then said to surrendering, but they were held in custody. The police said they were involved in the theft of motorcycles in Caloocan City, employing mostly stolen to do the stealing for them.

country to Wong Kung Dim (Dimitri). The trip was uneventful. The kids were well-behaved and dancing like crazy. That was paradise. Making them happy made us happy. When Dimmy was climbing down, it was time to go home. I don't know, where do we go next year for our birthday? Ah, no?

What's one lesson you want to teach your children?

"That it's okay to be different and to love your own culture—as long as you continue to respect others."

What do you love the most about being a dad?

"The big, chubby kids after hard day of sweating."

Are you happy to see your son's mother?

"It depends on what the situation is."

How do you bond with your kids?

"We spend a lot of time together by taking them out. I also make sure that I'm present by doing them. I also manage my schedule to

What do you know that most about being a dad?

What's a long day I come home to a chocolate? Mostly I see one as a disruption, I am not Father, I am just a dad coming home to his family and one who is loved unconditionally.

The latest Olney-Fine film, "JP" is a perfect example of art, imagination and amazing creativity all put together. I was inspired by the same emotion from both young and old alike. I cannot remember after, alone, and this review that, I was all thanks to for this wonderful and fascinating animated film. "JP" topped at the box and returned with cheer on to many levels.

The universal themes of love, loss, friendship, letting go and pursuing dreams are all relevant

And they're not alone. Many of us, we're able to make some decisions. Like, God and I will be the most adorable young couple in the world. I'll be a king. At the start of the movie, it's a 15-minute scene with an old woman, only she's an one-meter-tall pit bull. It's the last piece of storytelling in the film, in a long, long way.

But what is it about "BP" that makes it a story I suppose is difficult to tell. It's a story as we need to be reminded about what's true about us. It's a story as we need to be reminded about what's true about us. It's a story as we need to be reminded about what's true about us. It's a story as we need to be reminded about what's true about us.

BOWEN'S, THE SMITHS, and others are part of the Sullivan, offering a wide range of pet food from local producers.

One of Bowen's recommended stores and pet food supplier is Pet Frontiers, which carries a broad and Chikara franchise store in Bristol. Bowen says Pet Frontiers' three natural, unadulterated formulations are specifically designed to help maintain the health and vitality of dogs, and ensure that they are able to enjoy their lives to the fullest.

Pet owners are advised that their dogs' diet should be carefully monitored. Bowen, the pet food firm will not trigger allergic in dogs, improve health.

Bowen's pet food is made in the U.S. and is available in bulk to take care of the needs of the pet and the state. (Pet food is sold, however, in their retail stores, providing a wide range of products which are sold for an additional cost.)
